RiskVal appoints David Sawyer as Head of Marketing, North America

10 December 2008

RiskVal Financial Solutions, the leading provider of premier fixed income proprietary trading solutions, has appointed David N.W. Sawyer to the new position of Head of Marketing, North America.

This further strengthens the strong management team of RiskVal and helps the company capitalize on the increasing demand for state of the art fixed income risk valuation trading solutions in today's current market turbulence.

David Sawyer is an accomplished financial technology executive, who comes to RiskVal from Changing World Consulting. Mr. Sawyer previously was Director of Marketing, Americas for BT Global Financial Services / Radianz. Prior to helping to launch Radianz, Mr. Sawyer's posts included Managing Director of Market Data at Bear Stearns, as well as senior positions at Citigroup and Salomon Brothers.

Jordan Hu, President and CEO of RiskVal, comments "I am delighted that David has agreed to join RiskVal. David brings with him great industry relationships as well as a deep understanding of the electronic trading marketplace. We all look forward to the continued expansion and development of RiskVal."

Commenting on his new role, David Sawyer says, "RiskVal has already created state of the art fixed income trading analytics with a very impressive install base of the world's top tier fixed income prop traders. With RiskVal's strengths in world class customer service and rapid product delivery, I am excited by the chance to help such a cutting edge team go to market."
